

THE SUIT UPGRADE

Niklas Brönn is in the kind of corporate environment that needs suits Ascots & Chapels are specialists at making. So this one was a walk in the park.

"As a corporate executive, Niklas clearly wants his suit to leave an impression. For him, we worked with a notch lapel suit with two buttons, with a handpick detail on the lapel, the pocket edges and a keyhole to top off the entire look. A contrasting button thread on his shirt, also gives the garment enough personality to work independently - making it ideal for a more relaxed look when he wears it without a jacket."

MAHIR ALI, ARTISTIC AND OPERATIONS DIRECTOR, ASCOTS & CHAPELS

"For Niklas, we chose a mid-blue suit to accentuate the blue colour of his eyes. He worked with a vibrant paisley lining with shades of blues and purples, topping it off with a dog-tooth patterned shirt in a shade of lilac to complement his skin tone. These cool shades will keep Niklas looking fresh all day."
