

THE SUIT UPGRADE

Spanish national Carlos Saez needs a suit to help him look his best at a wedding he's due to attend – the ideal candidate for our new season of upgrades in association with bespoke tailors Ascots & Chapels.

There was no need for the sartorial equivalent of smoke and mirrors to make Carlos look great. He's blessed with an athletic physique (more robust rugby player than slim footballer) and a typically Mediterranean skin tone. Carlos's one-button blue suit is extremely versatile and has a peak lapel that complements his broad shoulders. His name stitched above the inside pocket, contrast stitching on the working cuff and monogrammed shirt cuffs all add that personal touch. Finally, we added a splash of colour with a red pocket square.

▲ Ascots & Chapels can offer customisation such as having your initials monogrammed on your shirt cuff – adding that personal touch.

▲ Bespoke tailoring gives you the ability to choose a suit lining that's out of the ordinary, or even add your name to the jacket.

◀ Contrast buttonhole stitching gives the sleeves of this suit some punch. Attention to details such as this is the hallmark of bespoke tailoring.
